

- Business environment
 changes in, 278–288
- Business trend studies, 74
- Business-to-business marketing. See Industrial
 marketing
- Bussiness potential, 59
- Business-to-business selling. See personal selling. Characteristics of b2b-selling. See role of personal selling.
- Buygrid framework, 42
- Buyers, 43, 45, 53–45, 298
- Buyer and sales rep. interaction, 52–61
- Buying behaviour, organisational, 5, 45– 50
 and personal selling, 185–186
 Sheth model, 47–48
 Webster and wind model, 47
- Buying centre, 43–45
 from distributors, 158
 members of, 44–45, 219
 reaching members of, 219
 roles of, 43–44
- Buying, industrial, 34–50
 buying situations, 41–42
 marketing implications of, 41
 phases in industrial buying decision, 36–41
- Buying orientation, 18–19
- Buyer's perception of sales rep., 53
- Capital items, 15–18
- Catalogues, 224–225
 on-line, 297
- Channel. See distribution channel industrial
- Choosing the international markets, 310
- C&F, 316
- CIF, 316
- Closing sales, 187
- Collaborative exchanges/relationships, 55– 58
- Combination house, 159
- Commercial enterprises, 11
 Purchasing in, 21–22
- Commercial terms and conditions, 249–
 252
- Commission, 167
 merchants, 159
- Company (Corporate)
 capabilities, 135
 core competence of, 261–262
 history, 261
 image, 300
 mission statement, 260–263
 objectives and goals, 263
 performance, 274
 resources, 261
 strategies, 241–243
- Competitive bidding, 241–243
- Competitiveness, 133–134
- Competitor(s), 28
 analysis of, 73, 101, 239–240
 response of, 239–240
- Computer programmes, 86
- Commercial risks, 313–314
- Communication, 175
 developing effective programme on,
 210–218
 objectives, 210–211
 strategy, 143, 303
- Concentrated marketing strategy, 104–105
- Contemporary purchasing activities, 49– 50
 just-in-time (JIT) delivery, 49
 single sourcing, 49
 value analysis, 49
- Contents of training programme, 194–195
- Control,
 factor for channel evaluation, 164– 165
 of marketing performance, 281–282
 of marketing plan, 279
 process, 281
 of sales force, 200–201
 types of, 281–282
- Contingency plans, 279