| My powerful questions show my understanding of the issue.                 |                |                    |          |                   |                              |  |
| My presentation provides valid evidence to support my position.           |                |                    |          |                   |                              |  |
| My answers show my understanding of many points of view and perspectives. |                |                    |          |                   |                              |  |
| My Selection, Analysis, and Evaluation of Information                     |                |                    |          |                   |                              |  |
| I drew information from a variety of sources.                             |                |                    |          |                   |                              |  |
| My evidence is relevant, valid, reliable, and free of bias.               |                |                    |          |                   |                              |  |
| My presentation clearly expresses my criteria for judgment.               |                |                    |          |                   |                              |  |
| My souces and references are cited correctly and accurately.              |                |                    |          |                   |                              |  |
| My Presentation   |                |                    |          |                   |                              |  |
| I support my position with graphics and use technology appropriately.     |                |                    |          |                   |                              |  |
| I am willing to consider many views and perspectives.                     |                |                    |          |                   |                              |  |
| I listen respectfully and respond thoughtfully to new ideas.              |                |                    |          |                   |                              |  |
| I am prepared to change my position as new ideas are presented.           |                |                    |          |                   |                              |  |
