

brief contents

Preface xx

About This Book: An Introduction for Students xxvii

PART I

- Chapter 1 What, in the World, Is Music? 1
- Chapter 2 How Music Lives: A Musicultural Approach 9
- Chapter 3 How Music Works, Part I: Rhythm 31
- Chapter 4 How Music Works, Part II: Pitch 43
- Chapter 5 How Music Works, Part III:
Dynamics, Timbre, and Instruments 57
- Chapter 6 How Music Works, Part IV: Texture and Form 75

PART II

- Chapter 7 Interlocking Rhythms and Interlocking Worlds
in Balinese Gamelan Music 87
- Chapter 8 Raga, Ravi Shankar, and Intercultural Crossings in Indian Music 117
- Chapter 9 Tradition and Transformation in Irish Traditional Music 153
- Chapter 10 Musical Conversations: Communication and Collective Expression in West African Musics 185
- Chapter 11 “Oye Como Va”: Three Generations in the Life of a Classic Latino/American Dance Tune 217
- Chapter 12 From Baladi to Belly Dance: Women’s Dance and Dance Rhythms in Egypt and Beyond 251
- Chapter 13 A Musicultural History of the Chinese Zheng 289
- Chapter 14 Climbing Jacob’s Ladder: Modern Musical Reflections of an Ancient Jewish Mystical Text 325

Glossary 355

References Cited in the Text 365

Credits 369

Index 371

contents

Preface xx

About This Book: An Introduction for Students xxviii

PART I

Chapter 1 What, in the World, Is Music? 1

A Point of Departure: Five Propositions for Exploring World Music 2

Proposition 1: The Basic Property of All Music Is Sound 2

Proposition 2: The Sounds (and Silences) That Comprise a Musical Work Are Organized in Some Way 3

Proposition 3: Sounds Are Organized into Music by People;
Thus, Music Is a Form of Humanly Organized Sound 4

Proposition 4: Music Is a Product of Human Intention and Perception 4

Proposition 5: The Term Music Is Inescapably Tied to Western Culture and Its Assumptions 6

Summary 6

Key Terms 7

Study Questions 7

Discussion Questions 7

Applying What You Have Learned 7

Resources for Further Study 7

Chapter 2 How Music Lives: A Musicultural Approach 9

Culture in Music 10

Meaning in Music 11

Identity in Music 11

Societies 13

Cultures 15

Nations and Nation-States 16

Diasporas and Other Transnational Communities 17

The Individual in Music 18

Spirituality and Transcendence in Music 20

Music and Dance 21

Music in Ritual 22

Music as Commodity and the Patronage of Music	23
The Transmission of Music and Musical Knowledge	25
Production and Reception	25
Music Creation Processes	26
Music in the Process of Tradition	27
Summary	29
Key Terms	29
Study Questions	29
Discussion Questions	30
Applying What You Have Learned	30
Resources for Further Study	30

Chapter 3 How Music Works, Part I: Rhythm 31

The Four Basic Properties of Tones	32
Rhythm	32
Beat	34
Subdivision	34
Meter	35
Accent and Syncopation	39
Tempo	39
Free Rhythm	40
Summary	40
Key Terms	40
Study Questions	41
Applying What You Have Learned	41
Resources for Further Study	41

Chapter 4 How Music Works, Part II: Pitch 43

Pitch and Melody	44
Pitch and Melody in “Mary Had a Little Lamb” and a Native American Eagle Dance Song	44
Names of Pitches in Western Music	44
The Western Pitch System and the Octave	46
Common Scales in Western Music: Major, Pentatonic, Minor, and Blues	48

	Modulation: Moving from One Scale and Key to Another	50
	Pitch and Scales in Non-Western Musical Systems	51
	Pitch, Chords, and Harmony	53
	Single Chord-Based Music and Music with Chord Progressions	53
	Harmonization of Melodies	53
	Arpeggios (Broken Chords)	53
	Other Chords, Other Harmonies	54
	Summary	54
	Key Terms	55
	Study Questions	55
	Applying What You Have Learned	55
	Resources for Further Study	55
Chapter 5	How Music Works, Part III: Dynamics, Timbre, and Instruments	57
	Dynamics	58
	Timbre	59
	Music Instruments	62
	Music Instrument Classification	63
	Summary	73
	Key Terms	73
	Study Questions	74
	Applying What You Have Learned	74
	Resources for Further Study	74
Chapter 6	How Music Works, Part IV: Texture and Form	75
	Single-Line Textures	76
	Multiple-Part Textures	76
	Form: The Designs of Musical Works	79
	Repetition and Patterning	79
	Forms with Contrasting Sections	82
	Summary	84
	Key Terms	84
	Study Questions	85
	Applying What You Have Learned	85
	Resources for Further Study	85

PART II

Chapter 7	Interlocking Rhythms and Interlocking Worlds in Balinese Gamelan Music	87
	Introduction	90
	Balinese Gamelan Music in Context	90
	Bali and the Republic of Indonesia	90
	Religion in Bali and Indonesia	91
	Gamelan in Bali and Beyond	92
	The Gamelan Beleganjur: An Introduction	95
	Kilitan Telu Interlocking Rhythms: A Musical Symbol of Communal Interdependence	95
	Musical Guided Tour: The Gamelan Beleganjur	96
	Balinese Kecak and the Kilitan Telu	97
	Experiencing Balinese Interlocking, Kecak-Style	98
	The Gamelan Beleganjur in Battles of Good versus Evil	99
	Beleganjur Music in Hindu-Balinese Cremation Processions	99
	Guided Listening Experience: Beleganjur Music Performed during a Balinese Cremation Procession	101
	Crossroads Battles and a Musical Ladder to the Upper World	102
	Walking Warriors: Worldly Battlegrounds of Beleganjur Music	103
	Lomba Beleganjur: The Modern Beleganjur Contest	104
	Kreasi Beleganjur: The Contest Musical Style	105
	Tradition and Innovation in Kreasi Beleganjur:
	An Elusive Balance	106
	Achieving the Elusive Balance: The Kreasi Beleganjur Music of I Ketut Suandita	108
	Guided Listening Experience: “Wira Ghorava Cakti ‘95” (Kreasi Beleganjur), by I Ketut Suandita	109
	Crossing International Borders	110
	Guided Listening Experience: “B.A.Ph.PET,” by Michael Bakan	111
	Summary	114
	Key Terms	114
	Study Questions	114
	Discussion Questions	115
	Applying What You Have Learned	115
	Resources for Further Study	115

Chapter 8	Raga, Ravi Shankar, and Intercultural Crossings in Indian Music	117
	Indian Music in Context	120
	Musical Diversity and Two Great Traditions	123
	The Hindustani Raga of Northern India	125
	Ravi Shankar and the Maihar Gharana	126
	“An Introduction to Indian Music,” by Ravi Shankar	127
	The Sitar-Tambura-Tabla Trio: Instruments and Texture	128
	Musical Guided Tour: “An Introduction to Indian Music”	128
	Raga Defined	132
	Tala: Meter and Rhythm in Raga Performance	132
	How a Raga “Grows”	133
	Form in Raga Performance	134
	Keeping Tal with Ravi Shankar	135
	Guided Listening Experience: “Raga Nat Bhairav” (Hindustani Raga), Vishwa Mohan Bhatt	138
	Intercultural Crossings	141
	Early Inroads: West Meets East , Improvisations , and the Music of John Coltrane	142
	Ravi Shankar, the Beatles, and the “Great Sitar Explosion”	143
	A New Level: John McLaughlin and Shakti	144
	Guided Listening Experience: “Joy,” Shakti	145
	Trilok Gurtu: Global Fusion Artist Extraordinaire	147
	Guided Listening Experience: “Living Magic,” Trilok Gurtu	148
	Summary	150
	Key Terms	151
	Study Questions	151
	Discussion Questions	151
	Applying What You Have Learned	152
	Resources for Further Study	152
Chapter 9	Tradition and Transformation in Irish Traditional Music	153
	A Preliminary Listening Experience	156
	Irish Music in Context	156
	An Introduction to Irish Traditional Music	158

Traditional Irish Dance Tunes and Medleys: Two Examples	159
Musical Guided Tour: Irish Traditional Dance Tunes	160
Guided Listening Experience: “The Cuckoo’s Hornpipe,” Seamus Ennis	162
Guided Listening Experience: “The First House in Connaught/ The Copper Plate Reel” (Medley), Seamus Ennis	165
The Life and Legacy of Seamus Ennis	168
Neo-Traditional Irish Music and the Irish Music Revival	170
Sean Ó’Riada and the Transformation of Irish Traditional Music	171
The Chieftains	171
Guided Listening Experience: “The Dingle Set” (Medley), The Chieftains	172
The 1970s: Second Generation of the Irish Music Revival	174
The Modern Ensemble Sound of Irish Traditional Dance Music	174
Guided Listening Experience: “The Emyvale/Ríl Gan Ainm/ The Three Merry Sisters of Fate” (Medley), Altan	176
The Post-Traditional World of Irish Music: Crossing Bridges with Eileen Ivers	179
The Music and Life of Eileen Ivers	179
Guided Listening Experience: “Gravelwalk” (Medley), Eileen Ivers	180
Summary	183
Key Terms	183
Study Questions	183
Discussion Questions	184
Applying What You Have Learned	184
Resources for Further Study	184

Chapter 10	Musical Conversations: Communication and Collective Expression in West African Musics	185
	African Musics in Context	188
	The African Continent, Sub-Saharan Africa, and the African Diaspora	188
	Music, Culture, and History in Sub-Saharan Africa	189
	Drumming	190
	Fontomfrom: An Akan Royal Drum Ensemble	191

Musical Guided Tour: Instruments and Basic Rhythmic Patterns in Fontomfrom Music 192

Guided Listening Experience: Fontomfrom
(Akan Royal Drum Ensemble Music) 194

Unifying Features of Music in West Africa: Musical Africanisms 195

More Than Drumming: African Musical Diversity and the Kora 196

The Kora and Its Musicultural World 197

 Mande History and Culture 198

 The Jeli and the Art of Jeliya 199

Seckou Keita: Kora Master, Jeli, and Radical Royal 200

 “I am not shy to sing and play the kora” 201

Guided Listening Experience: “Dounuya,” Seckou Keita 202

A Meeting of Musical Worlds: “Atlanta Kaira” 204

Guided Listening Experience: “Atlanta Kaira,” Toumani Diabate, Taj Mahal, and Ensemble 206

Angélique Kidjo: West African Collective Expression in a Global Musical World 209

 The Diva from Benin 209

Guided Listening Experience: “Okan Bale,” Angélique Kidjo 211

Summary 213

Key Terms 214

Study Questions 214

Discussion Questions 215

Applying What You Have Learned 215

Resources for Further Study 215

Chapter 11 “Oye Como Va”: Three Generations in the Life of a Classic Latino/American Dance Tune 217

Introduction 218

“Oye Como Va” and Latin Dance Music in Context 219

 Latin Dance Music Defined 219

 A Latino/American Phenomenon 221

Cuba, Creolization, and the Roots of Latin Dance Music 222

 Afro-Cuban Roots of Latin Dance Music 222

 Spanish-Cuban Roots of Latin Dance Music 224

The Danzón-Mambo 225

Enrique Jorrin and the Cuban Cha Cha Chá	225
Musical Guided Tour: Latin Percussion Rhythms of the Cha Cha Chá	227
Mambo (Big Band Mambo)	228
Tito Puente, the Newyorican Connection, and Latino/American Music Culture in New York City	229
Guided Listening Experience: “Oye Como Va,” Tito Puente (1963)	231
New Sounds, New Times: “Oye Como Va,” the Santana Version	234
The Rise of Santana and Latin Rock	235
Guided Listening Experience: “Oye Como Va,” Santana (1970)	237
Beyond the Music: Santana, “Oye Como Va,” and Pan-Latino Identity	240
Santana’s “Oye Como Va” and Tito Puente	240
The King of Salsa	241
“Oye Como Va” and the Emergence of Pan-Latino Identity	241
“Oye Como Va”: The Next Generation	243
Guided Listening Experience: “Oye Como Va,” Tito Puente Jr. (2004)	244
Tito Puente Jr.: Into the Future, Back to the Past	246
Summary	247
Key Terms	248
Study Questions	248
Discussion Question	249
Applying What You Have Learned	249
Resources for Further Study	249

Chapter 12	From Baladi to Belly Dance: Women’s Dance and Dance Rhythms in Egypt and Beyond	251
	Introduction	252
	Egypt: An Overview	257
	Egyptian History	258
	The Foundations of Egyptian Women’s Dance	260
	Speculations on Ancient Roots	261
	The Ghawazi Tradition	261
	Witness to a Ghawazi Performance	262
	Zaar: Egyptian Women’s Dance in a Healing Ritual	263
	The Zaar Ritual	263

Guided Listening Experience: Traditional Zaar Rhythms, Hossam Ramzy 265

Musical Guided Tour: Demonstration of Dum and Tek Drum Strokes 266

Music, Dance, Nationalism, and Mass Media Entertainment in 20th-Century Egypt 267

The Contributions of Badiaa Masabni 268

Dance, Music, and the Egyptian Film Industry 269

Muhammad 'Abd al-Wahhab and Samia Gamal 269

Guided Listening Experience: "Zeina," by Muhammad
'Abd al-Wahhab (Arrangement by Hossam Ramzy) 272

The Post-Independence Era 276

Cultural Nationalism and the Baladi Folk Ideal in Post-Revolutionary Egypt 277

Farida Fahmy and the Reda Troupe 278

Folk Dance Rhythms in Raqs Sharqi and Belly Dance:
Fallahi and Saaidi 278

The Tabla Solo Dance 280

Tabla Solo in a Raqs Sharqi Dance Routine 281

Guided Listening Experience: "Belhadawa Walla Belshaawa?"
(Tabla Solo), Hossam Ramzy 282

From Cairo to Mexico 284

Summary 285

Key Terms 286

Study Questions 286

Discussion Questions 287

Applying What You Have Learned 287

Resources for Further Study 287

Chapter 13 A Musicultural History of the Chinese Zheng 289

Introduction 292

China: An Overview 293

The Nation-State of Modern China 293

From Antiquity to the Present 294

An Introduction to the Zheng 295

Musical Guided Tour: The Zheng 297

The Zheng in Imperial China	298
The Han Dynasty Era	299
The Tang Dynasty Era	299
The Ming and Qing Dynasty Eras	302
Regional Styles: Traditional Solo Zheng Music	304
Guided Listening Experience: “Autumn Moon over the Han Palace,” Deng Haiqiong	305
Emergence and Development of the Conservatory Solo Zheng Style in Mainland China	307
Guided Listening Experience: “Return of the Fishing Boats,” by Lou Shuhua	308
Music and the Conservatory Solo Zheng Tradition in Communist China, 1949–1965	310
Guided Listening Experience: “Spring on Snowy Mountains,” by Fan Shang’e	312
The Cultural Revolution Era	314
The Rise of Deng Xiaoping and the Period of Openness	315
The Arts, the Zheng, and Musicultural Life in Post-1970s China	316
Guided Listening Experience: “Music from the Muqam,” by Zhou Ji, Shao Guangchen, and Li Mei	319
Summary	322
Key Terms	322
Study Questions	323
Discussion Questions	323
Applying What You Have Learned	324
Resources for Further Study	324
Chapter 14 Climbing Jacob’s Ladder: Modern Musical Reflections of an Ancient Jewish Mystical Text	325
Jewish Music and Jewish Musics	328
Jewish History and the Zohar	330
Early Jewish History	330
Rabbinic Judaism, the Zohar, Kabbalah, and Reform Judaism	332
Modern Jewish History	333
Climbing Jacob’s Ladder: Musical Symbolism and the Melodious Voice in Kabbalistic Prayer	334

Guided Listening Experience: “V’amazirim” (Zoharic chant), Isaac Kataev 335

Melodic Symbolism in “We Are Climbing Jacob’s Ladder” 337

Musical Guided Tour: Melodic Contour in “We Are Climbing Jacob’s Ladder” 338

Music, the Zohar, and the Secrets of the Torah 338

Roza D’Shabbos: The Secret of the Sabbath 339

Background Information on the Zohar and Roza D’Shabbos 339

Divine Reunification and Universal Redemption in Roza D’Shabbos 341

Pinchas Pinchik’s “Roso De Shabbos” (Roza D’Shabbos):
A Tone-Poem about Holiness 342

Guided Listening Experience: “Roza DeShabbos,” Ruth Wieder Magan (after Pinchas Pinchik) 342

Ruth Wieder Magan: Dusting Off the Surfaces of Tradition 345

Zohar Remix 347

The Zohar in Zöhar’s “Ehad” 348

Guided Listening Experience: “Ehad,” Zöhar 350

Summary 352

Key Terms 353

Study Questions 353

Discussion Questions 353

Applying What You Have Learned 354

Resources for Further Study 354

Glossary 355

References Cited in the Text 365

Credits 369

Index 371