9. After one half-life, one half of the original atoms remain. After two half-lives one half of those present at the beginning of that time period will remain. The product (1 / 2) (1 / 2) = 1 / 4,   so the number of atoms is reduced to one fourth after two half-lives. This is shown numerically in Problem 7.