

1. The chemical formula for water has two hydrogen atoms for each atom of oxygen. Each hydrogen atom has an atomic weight of 1, and the oxygen has an atomic weight of 16, so the ratio is $16 / (2 \times 1) = 8$.