

Table of Contents

Preface xxiii

Part 1 Benefits and Responsibilities of Public Speaking 1

Chapter 1

Speaking in Public 3

1A Recognize the Benefits of Knowing How to Speak in Public 5

1. Academic Benefits 5
2. Career Benefits 6
3. Personal Benefits 8

1B Manage Your Learning Process 8

1. Frustrations and Accomplishments Are Part of Any Learning Process 9
2. See Your Classmates as Valuable Resources 9

1C View Public Speaking as Communication 10

1. Public Speaking as Transactional Communication 10
2. The Components of the Transactional Process 11

1D Appreciate the Nature and History of the Public Speaking Course 13

Chapter 2

Giving Your First Speech:

The Public Speaking Process 18

2A Understand the General Process of Preparing, Organizing, and Presenting a Speech 20

1. Preparing the Speech 20
2. Organizing the Speech 23
3. Presenting the Speech 26

2B Use the Keys to Listenability to Manage the Speechmaking Process 26

Chapter 3

Creating Confident Presentations 32

3A Understand Why You Feel Nervous 34

	3B	Make Adrenaline Work for You Rather than Against You	36
		1. Dismiss the Performance Orientation: It Leads to Unnecessary Stress	36
		2. Adopt the Communication Orientation	37
		3. Keep Your Listeners in Communication Mode	38
		4. Call Your “Nerves” Speaker’s Energy to Make Them Work for You	39
	3C	Use Strategies for Reducing and Managing Excess Speaker’s Energy	39
		1. Psychological Tips to Use before the Presentation	40
		2. Physiological Tips to Use before the Presentation	40
		3. Tips to Use during the Presentation	42
Chapter 4		Applying Ethics	45
	4A	Know What Ethics Are	47
		1. How Is Ethics Defined?	47
		2. Who Decides What Is Right or Wrong?	47
	4B	Recognize Ethical Challenges and Their Consequences	48
		1. Ethical Challenges in Our Culture	48
		2. Consequences of Unethical Speaking	48
	4C	Make the Choice to Be Ethical	49
	4D	Follow These Guidelines for Ethical Speaking	51
		1. Be Ethical in Your Speech Preparation	51
		2. Be Ethical while Speaking	52
	4E	Avoid Plagiarism: An Essential Ethical Practice	55
		1. Plagiarism Is a Serious Matter	55
		2. Avoid Plagiarism while Speaking	55
	4F	Use Civility as a Companion to Ethical Speaking	59
Chapter 5		Listening to the Speeches of Others	64
	5A	Know What Good Listening Is	66
		1. Appreciate the Role of the Listener in the Public Speaking Transaction	66
		2. Understand the Difference between Hearing and Listening	67
		3. Understand the Difference between Active and Passive Listening	67
	5B	Understand the Listening Process	68
		1. Know the Steps in the Listening Process	68

- 2. Know How the Listening Process Can Break Down and What You Can Do about It 69
- 5C Differentiate Listening Levels 69
 - 1. Pseudo-Listening 69
 - 2. Appreciative Listening 70
 - 3. Empathic Listening 71
 - 4. Comprehensive Listening 72
 - 5. Critical Listening 73
- 5D Be an Excellent Public Listener 74
 - 1. Practice Civil Listening 74
 - 2. Practice Ethical Listening 75

Chapter 6

Knowing and Evaluating Yourself as a Public Speaker 79

- 6A Take an Honest Self-Inventory: Where Are You Now? 81
- 6B Set a Concrete Personal Goal for Each Presentation 82
 - 1. Make Your Speaking Goal Specific and Measurable 84
 - 2. Acknowledge the Goal 84
- 6C Start Your Self-Evaluation 84
 - 1. Evaluate Yourself Soon—But Not Too Soon—after the Presentation 85
 - 2. Use Multiple Sources for Evaluation 85
 - 3. Use Multiple Criteria for the Evaluation 87
 - 4. Keep Increasing the Sophistication of Your Self-Evaluation 87
- 6D Follow These Guidelines When Evaluating Another Speaker 88

Part 2 Getting Started 93

Chapter 7

Approaching Public Speaking as a Listener-Centered Practice 95

- 7A Understand the Nature of Your Public Listeners 97
 - 1. Advantages of Presenting to Public Listeners 97
 - 2. Challenges of Presenting to Public Listeners 98
- 7B Adopt the Framework of Listenability as a Guiding Principle 100
- 7C Listenability Goal #1: Satisfy Your Listeners' Preference for Conversational Patterns 100
 - 1. Understand the Difference between Readers and Listeners 100

2. Use the Conversational Skills You Already Have 101
 3. Recognize the Similarities and Differences between Conversation and a Public Speech 102
 4. Strive for an Important Conversation Style 103
- 7D Listenability Goal #2: Be Considerate by Minimizing the Demands on Your Listeners 106

Chapter 8

Analyzing Your Audience 110

- 8A Understand the Role of Audience Analysis 112
1. You Speak for the Audience 112
 2. Your Audience Is Different from You 113
 3. Audiences Differ from One Another 113
- 8B Adapt Your Presentation Based on Audience Analysis 113
1. Audience Analysis Helps You Choose and Shape the Topic for Maximum Interest and Relevance 114
 2. Audience Analysis Helps You Speak at the Listeners' Knowledge Level—Not Above or Below It 114
 3. Audience Analysis Determines the Language Best Suited to Communicate Your Message 114
 4. Audience Analysis Decreases the Chance of Alienating or Offending the Listeners 116
- 8C Know How to Analyze Your Audience 116
1. Know the Types of Data to Collect 117
 2. Collect Audience Data 118
 3. Make Sense of the Data, and Apply Them to Your Presentation 119
- 8D Know When to Analyze Your Audience 121
1. If You Haven't Yet Selected a Topic 121
 2. If Your Topic Is Predetermined 121
 3. Last-Minute Analysis 122
 4. Analyzing during the Presentation 122
- 8E Understand the Speaking Situation 123
1. Know Why Context Analysis Is Important 123
 2. Context Is Physical, Temporal, and Psychological 123

Chapter 9

Determining Your Speech Purpose, Topic, and Thesis 129

- 9A Consider the General Reason for the Speaking Event 131
1. Being Asked to Speak, Being Required to Speak, or Offering to Speak 131

- 2. Speaking to Inform, to Persuade, or to Mark a Special Occasion 132
- 9B Know Where to Find Your Topic 134
 - 1. Look Inside Yourself: You Already Know a Lot 134
 - 2. Consider Topics You Want to Know More About 134
 - 3. Talk to Others 135
 - 4. Browse 135
 - 5. Brainstorm 137
- 9C Choose Your Topic Early 138
- 9D Choose Topics of General Audience Interest 138
- 9E Choose Topics of Specific Audience Interest 139
- 9F Choose a Meaningful Topic 140
- 9G Move from Topic to Thesis Statement 141
 - 1. Know the Difference between a True Thesis and a False Thesis 142
 - 2. Other Thesis Considerations 143

Chapter 10

Incorporating Your Research 147

- 10A Follow These Tips before Starting Your Research 149
- 10B Make Use of the Breadth of Sources Available for Research 151
 - 1. The Internet 152
 - 2. Books and Other Hard-Copy Resources 154
 - 3. Librarians 156
 - 4. Interviews 158
 - 5. Organizations 159
 - 6. Government Data 159
- 10C Evaluate Your Sources to Ensure Your Credibility 161
- 10D Cite Sources for Listener Comprehension 163
 - 1. How to Cite 163
 - 2. When to Cite 164

Chapter 11

Supporting Your Ideas 167

- 11A Select the Right Form of Support 169
- 11B Use Objective Support 170
 - 1. Facts 170
 - 2. Definitions 171
 - 3. Statistics 172
- 11C Use Illustrative Support 175
 - 1. Examples 175
 - 2. Descriptions 177
 - 3. Explanations 178

- 11D Use Subjective Support 179
 - 1. Emotional Proof 179
 - 2. Personal Experience 180
- 11E Use Testimony as Support 181
 - 1. Why Use Testimony? 181
 - 2. Types of Testimony 181
 - 3. General Tips for Using Testimony 181
 - 4. Communicating the Testimony 182

Part 3 Organizing and Developing Your Speech 185

Chapter 12

Organizing Your Ideas 187

- 12A Finalize the Thesis Statement and Develop Main Points for an Informative Speech 189
 - 1. Topical Pattern 191
 - 2. Chronological Pattern 193
 - 3. Causal Pattern 194
 - 4. Comparison or Contrast Pattern 196
 - 5. Spatial Pattern 198
- 12B Finalize the Thesis Statement and Develop Main Points for a Persuasive Speech 201
 - 1. Why Pattern 201
 - 2. How Pattern 203
 - 3. Problem-Solution Pattern 204
 - 4. Monroe's Motivated Sequence 205

Chapter 13

Outlining Your Ideas 210

- 13A Understand the Role of the Preparation Outline 212
 - 1. The Outline Shows the Relationships between Your Ideas 212
 - 2. The Preparation Outline Is Not Your Speaking Outline 216
- 13B Create the Preparation Outline 216
 - 1. Be Consistent in Your Numbering, Lettering, Symbols, and Indentation 217
 - 2. Use Full Sentences 217
 - 3. Label the Speech Parts 217
 - 4. Title the Speech 221
 - 5. Attach a Bibliography 221

Chapter 14

Creating the Introduction 224

- 14A Understand the Role of the Introduction 226
- 14B Develop the Introduction 227
 - 1. Capture the Audience's Attention 228

2. Introduce the Topic and the Thesis 230
3. Preview the Main Points 233
4. Create a Connection between Your Audience and Your Ideas 233
5. Build Initial Speaker Credibility 234
6. Provide Other Orienting Material 234

14C Communicate the Introduction 235

Chapter 15

Creating the Conclusion 238

15A Understand the Role of the Conclusion 240

15B Develop the Conclusion 241

1. Use a Marker That Takes Listeners from the Body to the Conclusion 242
2. Reinforce the Thesis 243
3. Reinforce and Review the Main Points 243
4. Provide Other Closing Material 243
5. Finish with a Memorable, Planned Clincher 244

15C Communicate the Conclusion 245

15D Take Charge of the Question-and-Answer Session 246

1. Understand the Reason for Taking Questions 246
2. Preparing for the Question-and-Answer Session 248
3. Managing Typical Questions 249
4. Managing Potential Rough Spots 250

Chapter 16

Using Transitions 254

16A Understand the Role of Transitions 256

16B Develop Transitions 257

16C Know How to Use Transitions during the Presentation 259

Part 4 Presenting Your Speech 263

Chapter 17

Choosing a Method of Delivery 265

17A Extemporaneous Speaking: Talking as if in Important Conversation 267

1. Use the Extemporaneous Method for Most Speaking Situations 267
2. The Extemporaneous Method Offers the Most Advantages 268

17B Impromptu Speaking: Delivering a Message Off the Cuff 269

1. Anyone Can Give a Good Impromptu Speech 270
2. Avoid Common Impromptu Errors 271

- 17C Manuscript Speaking: Reading from a Prepared Text 272
 - 1. Reasons to Avoid Using the Manuscript Method 273
 - 2. Reasons to Use a Manuscript 273
- 17D Memorized Speaking: Reciting from Recall 276
 - 1. The Problems with Memorization 277
 - 2. Small Bits of Memorization Can Serve a Purpose 277

Chapter 18

- Creating Speaking Notes 282
- 18A Know the Difference between Speaking Notes and Your Preparation Outline 284
- 18B Create Your Speaking Notes to Complement Your Method of Delivery 284
 - 1. Speaking Notes for an Extemporaneous Delivery 284
 - 2. Speaking Notes for an Impromptu Delivery 285
 - 3. Speaking Notes for a Manuscript Delivery 285
- 18C Follow These Additional Tips for Preparing Your Speaking Notes 287
 - 1. Prepare Your Speaking Notes Early to Become Familiar with Them 287
 - 2. Use the Right Material for Your Speaking Notes 288
 - 3. Make Your Speaking Notes User-Friendly 289
- 18D Determine Whether (or Not) to Use Your Speaking Notes for the Presentation 292

Chapter 19

- Practicing Your Presentation 296
- 19A Believe That Practice Is Critical to Your Speaking Success 298
 - 1. Practice Helps You Attain Ownership of Your Material 298
 - 2. Practice Lowers Speaking Anxiety and Increases Your Positive Speaker's Energy 300
 - 3. Practice Prepares You for Your Time Limit 300
- 19B Use These Tips for Effective Practice 303
 - 1. Start Early 303
 - 2. Practice Aloud 304
 - 3. Practice Everything 304
 - 4. Practice the Presentation in Parts 305
 - 5. Practice in front of a Trusted Listener or Two 306
 - 6. Evaluate Your Progress during and after Each Practice Session 306
 - 7. Give Practice Your Undivided Attention 306

	19C Find the Right Amount of Practice 308
	1. Pitfalls of Too Little Practice 308
	2. Pitfalls of Too Much Practice 308
Chapter 20	Communicating with Language 312
	20A Be Inclusive with Your Language 314
	1. “-isms” 314
	2. Slang 317
	3. Jargon 317
	4. Obscenities 319
	5. Big or Cultural Vocabulary Words 319
	20B Be Accurate with Your Language 320
	1. Be Grammatically Correct 322
	2. Pronounce Words Correctly 323
	20C Let the Personality of Your Language Emerge 324
Chapter 21	Communicating with Your Voice 329
	21A Understand the Role of Your Voice 331
	21B Know the Ways Listeners Interpret Meaning from Your Vocal Qualities 332
	1. Emotional Tone 332
	2. Volume 333
	3. Fluency 334
	4. Articulation 335
	5. Pace 336
	6. Pitch and Inflection 337
Chapter 22	Communicating with Your Body 341
	22A Understand the Role of Nonverbal Communication 343
	1. Defining Nonverbal Communication 343
	2. Adapting to Cultural Differences 344
	22B Know the Ways Listeners Interpret Meaning from Your Body Movements 344
	1. Eye Contact 344
	2. Facial Expressions 347
	3. Posture 349
	4. Gestures 350
	22C Know the Ways Listeners Interpret Meaning from Your Body Placement 351
	1. Physical Distance 352
	2. Body Orientation 353
	22D Adapt for Speakers with Disabilities 354
	1. Notes for the Speaker with a Disability 354
	2. Notes for Audience Members 354
	3. Notes for the Speech Host 356

Chapter 23Using Narrative 358*23A Understand the Role of Narrative 360

1. Narratives Create Images That Connect with Listeners 360
2. Narratives Evoke Emotions 362
3. Narratives Instruct and Inspire 364
4. Narratives Entertain 365
5. Narratives Put a Human Face on a General Concept 366
6. Narratives Benefit the Speaker 366

23B Know How to Use the Narrative 367

1. Composing the Narrative 367
2. Incorporating the Narrative 368

Chapter 24Selecting and Incorporating Visual Support 372*24A Understand the Role of Visual Support 374

1. Visual Support Serves Different Functions 375
2. Visual Support Appeals to the Audience 375
3. Visual Support Benefits the Speaker 375

24B Determine Whether a Visual Is Right for Your Presentation 376

1. Are You Communicating Any Ideas That Need Visual Support? 376
2. Do You Fully Understand Your Visual? 377
3. Does Your Visual Material Support Your Presentation or Drive It? 378

24C Manage Your Two-Dimensional Visual Support 379

1. Types of Two-Dimensional Support 379
2. Preparing Two-Dimensional Support 382

24D Manage Your Three-Dimensional Visual Support 385

1. Types of Three-Dimensional Support 385
2. Preparing Three-Dimensional Support 386

24E Understand the Role of Presentation Software 387

1. Should You Use PowerPoint? Yes, If . . . 387
2. Advantages of PowerPoint 388
3. Disadvantages of PowerPoint 389
4. How to Make a Great PowerPoint Presentation 392

24F Follow These Guidelines for Using Technology in Your Presentation 39324G Know How to Use Your Visual Support 395

1. Discovery 395
2. Discussion 396
3. Distraction 396

Chapter 25Maintaining Listener Engagement 399

- 25A Engage Your Audience by Connecting Them to Your Ideas 401
- 25B Engage Your Audience through Your Language 402
 - 1. Incorporate “You-Language” 402
 - 2. Use Humor, If Appropriate 403
- 25C Engage Your Audience through Interaction 407
 - 1. Question the Audience 408
 - 2. Invite Audience Participation 408
 - 3. Invite Rhetorical Participation 410

Chapter 26Establishing Your Credibility as a Speaker 414

- 26A Understand the Role of Speaker Credibility 416
- 26B Know the Ways to Establish Credibility for All Speakers in All Contexts 417
 - 1. Be Prepared 417
 - 2. Show That You Are Ethical and Civil 417
 - 3. Show That You Are Competent 417
 - 4. Use an Objective Tone When Citing Credentials 417
 - 5. Show That You Own the Material by Speaking Conversationally 418
 - 6. Use “I-Language” 418
 - 7. Be Dynamic 419
 - 8. Show That You Want to Communicate 419
 - 9. Dress the Part 419
 - 10. Look at Your Audience 420
- 26C Know the Ways to Establish Credibility for Individual Speakers in Individual Contexts 421
 - 1. Education and Training 421
 - 2. Occupation 422
 - 3. Age 423
 - 4. Experience 424
 - 5. Expertise 424
 - 6. Personal Connections 424
 - 7. Memberships 425
 - 8. Culture 425
- 26D Manage Your Credibility 425
 - 1. Before the Presentation 425
 - 2. During the Presentation 426
 - 3. After the Presentation 428

Part 5 Types of Public Speaking 431

Chapter 27

Speaking to Inform 433

27A Understand the Role of Informative Speaking 435

27B Recognize Types of Informative Speeches 436

1. Speaking about Objects 436
2. Speaking about People 437
3. Speaking about a Process 438
4. Speaking about an Event 438
5. Speaking about a Concept 439

27C Use Common Strategies to Help Listeners Learn 440

1. Make It Relevant 440
2. Remember: Less Can Be More 440
3. Organize Your Ideas for Maximum Engagement and Focus 440
4. Explain, Do Not Assume 442
5. Elaborate 442

Chapter 28

Speaking to Persuade 445

28A Understand the Role of Persuasive Speaking 447

1. A Persuasive Speech Creates, Changes, or Reinforces Thinking 448
2. A Persuasive Speech Creates, Changes, or Reinforces Action 449

28B Recognize Types of Persuasive Speeches 449

1. Argue an Assertion of Fact 449
2. Argue an Assertion of Value 449
3. Argue an Assertion of Policy 450

28C Use General Persuasive Strategies 451

1. Know Your Audience 451
2. Be Realistic about Your Persuasive Goal 452
3. Be Organized 453
4. Be Understood First 453
5. Use Classical Appeals 453
6. Use Contemporary Appeals 454

28D Use Framing as a Persuasive Strategy 456

Chapter 29

Developing Your Arguments 459

29A Use Reasoning 461

29B Arrange Your Reasoning According to a Pattern 463

1. Inductive Reasoning: From Specific Instances to a General Pattern 463
2. Deductive Reasoning: From a General Principle to a Specific Instance 464

	3. Causal Reasoning: From Cause to Effect or Effect to Cause	466
	4. Analogical Reasoning: Reasoning through Comparison	467
29C	Beware of Reasoning Fallacies	469
	1. Appeal to Fear: Believe Me or Beware!	470
	2. Slippery Slope: You'll End up with This before You Know It!	470
	3. Ad Hominem: Attacking the Person Instead of the Problem	471
	4. Either/Or: A False Dilemma	471
	5. Red Herring: A Distraction from the Real Issue	472
	6. Bandwagon: Everybody's Doing It!	472
Chapter 30	Speaking on Special Occasions	475
30A	Understand the Role of Special-Occasion Speaking	477
30B	Use General Strategies for Special-Occasion Speaking	478
	1. Do Your Homework	479
	2. Be Accurate	479
	3. Be Brief	479
	4. Make Emotional Connections	480
	5. Use Elevated Language	480
	6. Avoid Overused Phrases and Clichés	480
30C	Recognize Common Types of Special-Occasion Speeches	480
	1. Toast	481
	2. Speech of Introduction	482
	3. Speech of Tribute	483
	4. Speech of Commemoration	483
	5. Speech of Acceptance	484
	6. Speech to Inspire	484
30D	Prepare a Thesis Statement, and Organize the Ideas in Your Special-Occasion Speech	486
Resources	Speaking in Groups	R-1
	Guide to Documentation Styles	R-12
	Speaker Evaluation Form	R-21
	Speaker Self-Evaluation Form	R-23
	Sample Speech Topics	R-25
	Glossary	G-1
	Chapter Notes	N-1
	Credits	C-1
	Index	I-1