CAPÍTULO 3 De compras

Antes de navegar

You are planning a trip to Spain and want to look “cool” to the Spanish teenagers you meet there. You have a limited budget, but plan to buy five items for your travel wardrobe. In Spanish name five different clothing items you might select (choose from the vocabulary on page 94 of the textbook). Tell what color you hope is popular and how much you think you would pay in U.S. dollars if you were to buy the item in your favorite U.S. department store or catalog. Write your choices in the chart below.

¡A navegar!

Primera parte: Ropa nueva

Click on the link for El corte inglés. Choose Para ella or Para él and browse their selection. See if the items you listed in Antes de navegar are listed. There may be many choices. They may be pictured or just listed by name. You may want to click on several to compare before you make your selection.

Select five items that interest you and record the information about each one in the chart below. You will want to wait to do your currency conversion into dollars until after all of your items have been selected.

Segunda parte: Los precios

Use the Currency Converter link to figure out how much each new item of clothing costs in dollars. Write this information in the chart above.

- Now total the cost of your items in euros and dollars.

Total _____ / _____

Euros Dólares

- Will the total cost be more or less than the amount you predicted in Antes de navegar?

Después de navegar

Answer the following questions.

- ¿Es la ropa en España más cara o más barata que en los Estados Unidos?

- ¿Cómo es la ropa del catálogo? ¿Es similar a tu ropa, más formal o más informal?
