Nombre _____ Fecha _____

CAPÍTULO 2 Ciudades hispanohablantes en Estados Unidos

Antes de navegar

Imagine that you have been corresponding with a key pal from Central America. Your key pal has decided that she or he would like to come to the United States to study and wants to know which regions of the country have the largest concentrations of Spanish speakers. Look at the map below and shade the sections of the country that you would point out to your friend.

¡A navegar!

Primera parte: ¿Hay más información?

1. Verify the information that you have given your friend. Use the Internet to find the most recent census data. Compare your map to the information you found online. Did you point out the correct sections to your friend?

❑ Sí   ❑ No

2. Your friend wants more information about the states where large numbers of Hispanics live. Use the census information you found online to answer your friend's questions.

a. Are there any states in which Hispanics make up at least 20 percent of the total population?

❑ Sí   ❑ No

b. Are there any states in which Hispanics comprise more than half of the total population?

❑ Sí   ❑ No

c. Name the state in which Hispanics make up the greatest percent of the population.

_____

3. All of this information has made your friend curious about the number of Spanish speakers living in your state. Find census information online for your state and answer your friend's questions.

a. What percentage of your state's population is Hispanic?

_____

b. Which two nationalities are most common among the Hispanics living in your state?

_____

Segunda parte: ¿Qué ciudad es la mejor?

1. Now your friend would like to know which cities in the United States have the most to offer Spanish speakers. Use the census information to select three cities that you think will be most interesting to your friend. Write the names of those cities below.

a. _____

b. _____

c. _____

2. Next, skim the information you found and write down the two things about each city that you think would most likely convince your Central American friend to live there.

City:

a. _____

b. _____

City:

a. _____

b. _____

City:

a. _____

b. _____

Nombre _____ Fecha _____

Después de navegar

Answer the following questions.

1. Your friend finally has enough information to make a decision about where to live and study when she or he comes to the United States. Which city do you think your friend will choose?

_____

2. Use the information that you gathered in the ¡A navegar! section of this worksheet to help you explain to your classmates why you think your friend will make that choice. Write your explanation below.

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

3. List any new words you learned.

Palabras nuevas